OCTOBER 2025

Black History Month 2025

Standing Firm in Power & Pride

A very warm welcome to this years Black History Month.

History embeds every facet of life and when recorded and told with truth and peaceful actions we can all stand firm in the resilient spirit of strength.

The Bradford Black Heritage Arts & Culture planning group & supporting partners are proud to have assembled a city wide and internationally linked BHM 2025 events programme. We are honoring the Black community in celebration of achievements, developments & impact of its rich cultural heritage for the betterment of present and future generations. Our mission is to raise awareness, acknowledge the contributions and sacrifices made to increase understanding of our culture and belonging in the City of Bradford and beyond.

This programme of events has something for all generations and backgrounds. The events are hosted in accessible safe venues and respectful to the environment. The events range from; Civic flag raising ceremonies, Educational & Cultural activities for schools, Colleges and Universities; Museum & Art Gallery tours; Guest Speakers and Historians; Book Clubs; Photography; International Cuisines; Live Music shows ; Poetry ; Business, Health and Welfare advice; Games and Entertainment Nights ; Pop Up Exhibitions, Dance & Theatre performances; National Independence celebrations; International Conferences; Black Tie & Traditional wear Dinner & Fund Raisers, Steel Pan, African Dance workshops, Beat Boxing and much more !

Our aim is to progress together, welcoming the opportunity for you to engage and be inspired , building stronger relations, Black History must be acknowledged and shared throughout every month of each year with and between diverse cultures for a fairer unified future. So please join us and be a part of our growing mission.

Frontline 1984/1985

A selection of photography from Frontline 1984/1985, an exhibition exploring Bradford's African Caribbean communities in the '80s. African Caribbean communities in the 1980s are brought vividly back to life in this display featuring a selection of photography from Victor Wedderburn's first exhibition. Victor Wedderburn Jr arrived in the UK from Jamaica in 1971 at the age of 16, joining his Windrush Generation parents here in Bradford. When redundancy took his job at Crofts Engineers in the early 1980s, he used his pay-off to buy a second-hand camera and film developing kit, then set about documenting life in the city. This selection is drawn from Frontline 1984/1985, the first ever exhibition from this self-taught photographer, and vividly evokes African Caribbean life in Bradford 40 years ago. From Lumb Lane landmarks such as Roots Record Shop and the Perseverance Hotel to sound system parties, these photographs tell a story that's sometimes written out of Bradford's history.

Don't miss this powerful window into a lost era—a striking snapshot of a community that Victor Wedderburn knew from the inside out.

Congo Week/ Goma and Bukavu Crisis Sat 4th October, 12-2pm at Millside Centre

To commemorate Congo Week and Black History Month, CRC (Conflict Resolution Centre) Bradford is hosting an awareness raising event at Millside Centre, 131 Grattan Road, BD1 2HS.

The 3-decade endless war and related endemic insecurity in this strategic-resource-rich DR Congo in relation to the illegal exploitation of these resources has reached another level on 27 January 2025. This new episode started with Rwanda-backed M23 rebels capturing 2 major cities in the east of the country (Goma & Bukavu) with, as a result, the extra humanitarian disasters on women & children. In geo-politics, this episode was followed by the interest and involvement of President Trump in Congo minerals. A peace talks have been organised in both Washington (between DRC & Rwanda) and Doha/Qatar (between DRC government and M23 rebels). Come and learn more and find out how you can take action.

FILM PREMIERE

ONE ARTIST. FOUR PORTRAITS. LIVES IN COLOUR.

PAINTED

A FILM BY TOM HARMER

SATURDAY 4TH OCTOBER, 7PM
PICTUREVILLE CINEMA, BRADFORD

PAINTED is a 30-minute documentary rooted in Bradford, exploring the heritage and experiences of the city's Afro-Caribbean community, directed by local filmmaker Tom Harmer. The film examines identity, racism, and legacy through portrait painting, as four elders from the African Caribbean Wellbeing Café share their stories..

Portrait artist Jamie Stewart, whose work is gaining national recognition, listens as he paints, reflecting on the responsibility of truly seeing someone and capturing more than their image. Through his portraits, Jamie seeks to reveal "the layers of a person," weaving their journeys and experiences into paint and canvas.

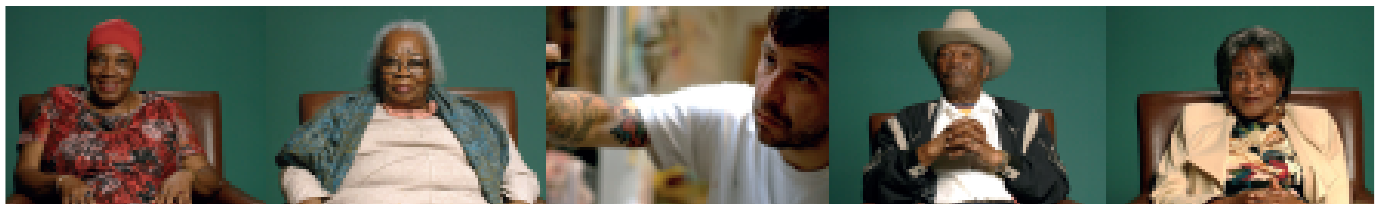

The film will premiere at Pictureville in Bradford for one night only as is a joint production between The Black Health Forum and Tom Harmer.
